Dismantling Myths of Investing

May 20th, 2025, 4:30pm CST

Zoom Webinar

Did you know:

- There are investing myths that have the potential to destroy your investing peace of mind?
- How stock picking, market timing, and track-record investing can be destructive to you and your family's dreams?
- There's an empirically tested investing methodology, based on academic investing principles to help eliminate speculating and gambling with your financial future?

Get answers to these questions and more at the next Investor Coaching Series webinar, Dismantling Myths of Investing.
